Zeofill Scholarships for the Arts

Through a generous grant from Zeofill, Inc., the Don Ferrarese Charitable Foundation will be offering scholarships to students grades 6-12 as well as undergraduate college students to pursue their studies in visual and performing arts.

Applicants need to be legal citizens of the United States enrolled full-time in grades 6-12 and or a fulltime undergraduate student at an accredited college.

All applicants should hold a combined grade point average of no less than 3.0 on a 4 point scale.

All scholarship monies will be paid directly to the institution offering the classes and or instructions to the recipients, including a stipend for materials, uniforms and other directly related costs.

Scholarships are offered on a case by case basis and strictly subject to the judges, who will be comprised of the members of the Ferrarese Foundation, evaluation and scoring of the application and essay.

Each applicant shall complete the application as well as write a 500 word essay, titled "The Value of Art" a contribution to society. The essay must be type written, in no less than 12 point font, double spaced. The essay must be entirely the work of the applicant.

The scholarships will be awarded on a yearly basis, and may be renewed based upon the Board's sole approval. A renewal is not guaranteed.

Recipients shall not personally redeem the scholarship monies in any form or nature. Any scholarship monies paid to the institution offering instruction and or lessons, which goes unused for actual services provided must be returned entirely to the Ferrarese Foundation.

Any award is subject to proof of students fulltime enrollment in school and a copy of the students latest report card, which must indicate a grade point average of no less than 3.0 on a scale of 4 (un-weighted) All applications must be submitted by email to info@don-frse.com All applicants agree that all submittals once submitted will become the exclusive property of the Don Ferrarese Charitable Foundation which may utilize the name of any recipient, at the foundations discretion
